

Proposal:

Introduce broad topic; provide brief background information.

Indicate significance/importance of topic

Move toward specific focus and ask open-ended questions that lead toward claims

Reading List:

A variety of sources found using library catalog and databases (primary and secondary; journal articles, reports, magazines, newspapers, websites)

Minimal amount of non-library resources

Identifying criteria for sources (author's name, title of source, title of publication, date of publication)